Seller Terms and Conditions

Paylumo Private Limited |

Contact: support@vaultpay.co.in

These terms govern your use of Vault as a Seller. By accepting these terms and publishing a listing, you enter into a binding agreement with Paylumo Private Limited. If you do not accept these terms, you may not list tickets on Vault.

1. Definitions

"Vault" means the platform operated by Paylumo Private Limited at vaultpay.co.in

"Buyer" means a registered user who purchases a ticket through Vault.

"Seller" means you, a registered user who lists a ticket for sale on Vault.

"Listing" means a ticket offered for sale by you on Vault.

"Receiver Details" means the name and mobile number provided by the Buyer to which the ticket must be transferred.

"Transfer Evidence" means the recording you submit demonstrating completion of the transfer.

"Ticketing Platform" means the third-party platform through which the ticket was originally issued.

"Seller Fee" means the fee payable to Vault under Clause 6.

2. Nature of the Service

- 2.1 Vault is an intermediary within the meaning of Section 2(1)(w) of the Information Technology Act, 2000. Vault holds Buyer funds in escrow and releases them subject to these terms.
- 2.2 Vault is not a party to the contract of sale between you and the Buyer, does not take title to or possession of any ticket, and is not affiliated with any event organiser or Ticketing Platform.
- 2.3 You set the price of your Listing. Vault neither sets, recommends nor caps ticket prices.
- 2.4 Nothing in these terms creates a partnership, joint venture, agency or employment relationship between you and Vault.

3. Eligibility

- 3.1 You must be at least 18 years of age and competent to contract under the Indian Contract Act, 1872.
- 3.2 You must be resident in India and hold a bank account or UPI identifier in your own name.
- 3.3 You must maintain accurate registration and payout details. Vault will not remit funds to accounts held by third parties.
- 3.4 Vault may require identity verification at any time and may withhold payouts pending satisfactory completion of such verification.

4. Seller Warranties

By publishing a Listing you represent and warrant, on each occasion, that:

- (a) you lawfully hold the ticket described in the Listing and are entitled to resell it;
 - (b) you have verified with the relevant Ticketing Platform that the ticket is transferable and that transfer is not restricted or prohibited;
 - (c) all particulars in the Listing, including event, date, time, venue, quantity, category and Ticketing Platform, are accurate;
 - (d) the ticket has not been previously transferred, sold, cancelled, refunded or used;
 - (e) the ticket is not concurrently listed on any other platform; and
 - (f) you will not dispose of the ticket to any third party while the Listing remains active.
- 4.1 You may list only the quantity of tickets you hold. Listings for events that have already occurred are prohibited.
- 4.2 Vault may remove any Listing at its discretion, including where it appears inaccurate, misleading or in breach of these terms.
- 4.3 Restrictions imposed by Ticketing Platforms on onward transfer are outside Vault's control. Verification of transferability rests solely with you.

5. Obligations on Sale

- 5.1 On receipt of notification that a Buyer has paid, you must initiate the transfer within 30 minutes. Failure to do so cancels the transaction, refunds the Buyer in full and entitles you to no payment.
- 5.2 Upon initiating transfer, you must complete the transfer and submit Transfer Evidence within 15 minutes.
- 5.3 Transfer must be made to the Receiver Details displayed on Vault and to no other recipient. Transfer to any other recipient constitutes a fundamental breach of these terms.
- 5.4 You must not solicit or conduct any transaction with a Buyer outside Vault, whether to avoid fees, escrow or otherwise.

6. Transfer Evidence

- 6.1 Transfer Evidence must show, without interruption, your Ticketing Platform account, the ticket in question, entry of the Receiver Details and confirmation of completion by the Ticketing Platform.
- 6.2 Where a Ticketing Platform restricts screen capture, evidence should be recorded using a separate device.
- 6.3 Evidence that is partial, unclear or edited may be treated as no evidence for the purposes of Clause 8.
- 6.4 Failure to submit Transfer Evidence within the period specified in Clause 5.2 will result in the transaction being escalated for review and payment being withheld pending determination.
- 6.5 Submission of fabricated or altered evidence constitutes a material breach, will result in termination of your account and forfeiture of pending payouts, and may be referred to law enforcement.

7. Fees and Payouts

- 7.1 Vault charges a Seller Fee of 2.5% of the ticket price, deducted from the sum payable to you.
- 7.2 Payment becomes due upon the Buyer confirming receipt, or upon expiry of the Buyer's confirmation period without response, and is ordinarily remitted within 24 to 48 hours.

- 7.3 No payment is due where the transaction is cancelled under Clause 5.1, or where a dispute is determined in the Buyer's favour under Clause 8.
- 7.4 Vault is not liable for delays attributable to your bank or payment provider, nor for remittance to an incorrect account arising from payout details supplied by you.
- 7.5 You are responsible for all taxes arising from your sales. Vault may deduct tax at source where required by law and will issue the corresponding certificate.
- 7.6 Vault may revise its fees on not less than 14 days' notice. Fees in force when a Listing is published govern that Listing.

8. Disputes

- 8.1 Where a Buyer raises a dispute, escrowed funds are withheld until the dispute is determined.
- 8.2 Vault will determine disputes on the evidence submitted by both parties together with the transaction record, ordinarily within 48 hours.
- 8.3 You must respond to requests for information within 24 hours. Failure to respond may result in determination on the evidence available.
- 8.4 Vault's determination is final as regards the release or refund of escrowed funds. This does not affect any independent legal right you may have against the Buyer.
- 8.5 A pattern of determinations against you may result in payout holds, listing restrictions or termination.

9. Prohibited Conduct

You must not:

- (a) list a ticket you do not hold or have already disposed of;
- (b) provide false or misleading Listing information;
- (c) transfer to any recipient other than the Receiver Details displayed;
- (d) fabricate or alter Transfer Evidence;
- (e) transact with Buyers outside Vault;
- (f) operate multiple accounts to circumvent restrictions or terminations;
- (g) use Vault for any unlawful purpose, including money laundering or fraud; or
- (h) harass or abuse any Buyer or member of Vault's personnel.

10. Suspension and Termination

- 10.1 Vault may withhold any payout where it reasonably suspects fraud, breach of these terms or where a dispute or investigation is pending.
- 10.2 Vault may suspend or terminate your account without notice where it reasonably believes you have breached these terms.
- 10.3 Where an account is terminated for fraud or material breach, pending payouts may be withheld and applied towards refunds due to affected Buyers.
- 10.4 You may close your account at any time provided no Listing, transaction, dispute or payout remains pending.

11. Events After Completion

- 11.1 Cancellation, postponement or alteration of an event by its organiser following a completed transaction does not give rise to any claim against you through Vault, and Vault will not reverse a completed payout on that basis.
- 11.2 Any refund in respect of a cancelled or postponed event is governed by the policies of the event organiser and the Ticketing Platform.

12. Liability and Indemnity

- 12.1 Nothing in these terms excludes liability for fraud, for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.
- 12.2 Subject to Clause 12.1, Vault's aggregate liability in respect of any transaction shall not exceed the sum payable to you in respect of that transaction.
- 12.3 Vault is not liable for indirect or consequential loss, including loss of profit or opportunity, nor for the acts or omissions of any Buyer, event organiser, venue or Ticketing Platform.
- 12.4 You shall indemnify Vault against any claim, loss or expense arising from a Listing published by you that is inaccurate, fraudulent or in breach of the warranties in Clause 4.

13. Data

- 13.1 Vault processes your personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy and the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023.
- 13.2 You consent to Vault disclosing your Listing particulars to prospective Buyers and disclosing Transfer Evidence to the counterparty in a dispute.
- 13.3 Vault retains transaction, dispute and payout records for not less than three years.
- 13.4 Vault communicates through in-application notification, email and WhatsApp on the number registered to your account. Vault will not request your password, banking credentials or any one-time password.

14. General

- 14.1 Vault may amend these terms on not less than seven days' notice. The version in force when a Listing is published governs that Listing.
- 14.2 These terms are governed by the laws of India. Subject to Clause 14.3, the courts at [CITY] shall have jurisdiction.
- 14.3 Nothing in Clause 14.2 limits any right you may have to approach a Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.
- 14.4 Grievances may be addressed to the Grievance Officer, [NAME], at [EMAIL], [REGISTERED OFFICE ADDRESS]. Complaints will be acknowledged within 48 hours and resolved within one month.
- 14.5 If any provision is held invalid, the remaining provisions continue in force. Failure to enforce any provision does not constitute waiver.
- 14.6 These terms, together with the Privacy Policy, constitute the entire agreement between you and Vault. You may not assign your rights. Vault may assign its rights on notice.
